Advanced Forms

Model Validation is easy but sometimes you need more control over the validation

Then you can use manual validation

You create a Validation class with a validate method manually and create your own validation code inside the validate method

When receiving a Form Object, you call the validate method and send in the Form Object

EDUMENT
Development and Mentorship

Let's do a demo and then the exercises!